Dear Paul, 1/24/98

Thanks for your 1/20 and the best-seller list. I see "ersh is now down at its bottom.

I'll be interested in this and anything else on him for the record but except for the foreword, I've finished with that book manuscript. Except for getting it retyped, and I've no prospect of that right now.

Seem like the whole eastern half of the country is under water.

Washington's streets were deep in water yesterday and, while I can't know if we got it this early in the morning, when I've not yet gone out, we were under a flash flood warning.

I'll knowx if I come to a bridge that is blocked off.

I've two ~~to cross~~ to cross before I get to the supermarket where I do a bit of shopping and walk with the cart as support instead of my cane.

Thanks and best,

Harold
